Publicity Clerk Gives Account of Synod

Recent Meeting at Flora Macdonald Is Reported by Dr. J. G. Garth, of Charlotte

BY REV. J. G. GARTH, D. D.,
Publicity Clerk of Synod.

The Synod met at Red Springs in Flora Macdonald College Sept. 7-9 and was opened with the sermon of retiring moderator Rev. J. O. Mann, whose theme was "God's Plow and its Deep Furrows". Mr. Mann declared God was chastising Christendom for its pride, its false sense of values, its unbelief and disregard of God. Since this divine dispensation has occurred the world lies fallow and ready for a new sowing of the gospel seed. He spoke of the revival of religion among soldiers, quoting his son's letter from Sicily, and urged true penitence, new understanding of issues, a sense of crisis, and a personal commitment to the cause of Christ.

W. E. Price, layman of Charlotte, was unanimously elected moderator. Mr. Price is chairman emeritus of the Superintendents' Conference of Montreat and a member of the Religious Education Committee of the Assembly.

Important Reports

Home Missions reported its budget fully met, with $31,452 spent in the nine presbyteries, 66 workers and 200 fields occupied. Some

Synod Will Meet At This Home in 1944

When Synod Met Here in 1941 A New All-Time Attendance Mark Was Set

Unless some other institution extends an invitation to the Synod of North Carolina for its 1944 annual meeting, it will be held at Barium Springs next September. This was a proviso in the invitation which Jos. B. Johnston, superintendent, made in inviting Synod for next year. Mr. Johnston stated that he did not want any place to feel that Barium Springs was having Synod oftener than it should.

When the time came for extending invitations for Synod to meet, there was none extended and it was then that Mr. Johnston consulted with some of the regents and invited Synod to come here again, after having entertained them in 1941. Many of the colleges are so busy in various programs that they evidently were not in a position to have Synod with them next fall. It met here in 1941, at Queens College in 1942, and the 1943 meeting was at Flora Mac-

Those Who Started in the First Grade This Year

S. S. Honors Boys

Unity Sunday School in Kings Mountain Presbytery has notified officals of Barium Springs that it is purchasing a $25.00 Series F government bond to send to Barium Springs for the proposed new church, and that the bond will be given in honor of the boys of that Sunday School now in the various services and in memory of any who have been called upon to make the supreme sacrifice.

This is the first time that an organization has bought a bond for the Church, and the thought behind the purchase is especially commendable. It was stated that not every boy of the community had been a member of the Sunday School at Unity, but that they had attended the secular schools there. This made no difference to them, though, for they wanted all the boys honored by this purchase.

The Sunday School at Unity is now in the process of raising the necessary $18.50 for the purchase, and as soon as the bond is available it will be forwarded to officials at Barium, who will place it with that ever increasing number of government securities that is being accumulated for that church of the future.

Thanksgiving Plans Now Being Perfected

"Pride and Appreciation of Alumni" Is Name of Booklet to Be Used. —Other Plans

Although the vitally important season of Thanksgiving is still a little more than two months off, plans for the emphasis to be placed upon Barium Springs during that period of the year are already being made, and very shortly all of the publicity material to be used in the emphasis will be off the press at Barium.

During the month of September 30,000 copies of an 11-page booklet "Pride and Appreciation of Alumni" were printed in the local printing office, and 100,000 Thanksgiving Offering envelopes arrived at Barium Springs for later distribution to the churches and organizations within the churches. The 30,000 booklets are to be sent to Auxiliaries and Sunday Schools, and extracts from the booklet will appear in 60,000 leaflets that will be distributed to the churches about Thanksgiving-

Lieut. Fred Lowrance Is Missing In Action

His Parents at Barium Springs Notified That He Has Been Missing Since July 30th

News was received here on August 21st by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lowrance that their son, Second Lieut. Fred J. Lowrance, had been missing in action in the New Georgia area of the Solomon islands since July 30.

No further definite word has been received about this popular boy. Mr. and Mrs. Lowrance have had two other telegrams from the war Department to the effect that they were checking up on their son, and would communicate with them as soon as possible.

The last letter that his parents received from Lieutenant Lowrance was written on July 28, and while he could not disclose his position they felt that he was participating in the Munda offensive. In this letter he told of a chance meeting with Ensign Eston Lackey, also of Barium Springs, who was operating on a ship in that territory.

Lieutenant Lowrance entered

Good News

Howard Memorial Sunday School in Albemarle Presbytery has reinstated the Offering-per month plan, after a lapse of about two years in which these monthly offerings were not sent. A gift arrived for September and the treasurer stated that these would be coming regularly in the future.

Bayless Memorial Auxiliary in Concord Presbytery has sent $12.00 for 1943-1944, but the treasurer stated that they expected to duplicate this before the year was over, to give them a $1.00 per-month-per-Circle. That will mean, if carried out, a 100% increase in regular giving for that Auxiliary.

Information was received at Barium Springs last month that the Kannapolis First Auxiliary in Concord Presbytery had adopted the $1.00-per-month-per-Circle plan, this being disclosed when a check for $7.00 was received for one month from the seven Circles.

The Business Girl's Circle of the Mallard Creek Auxiliary in Mecklenburg Presbytery has increased its pledge 50% for 1943-1944.

Others like revelations will be made in The Messenger from month to month, when such a happy disclosure is possible.

Whereabouts of 1943 Class Is Recounted

Uncle Sam Has Most of the Boys.— Detail Is Given on Other Members

It isn't difficult to locate the members of the last graduating class - Uncle Sam claimed the services of so many of them that most of them are now busy going to school for him.

Joe Long, the president of the class, who wanted very much to go to colleege, is now at college; he is in the air corps and has been sent to West Texas State at Canyon, Texas.

Donald Bolton is in the infantry at Fort Benning, Ga. Right now Donny has his mind on Barium football since he was last year's captain, and when our boys were getting ready to go into their first game last Friday night, there was a letter from Donny giving them the necessary boost to put up a grand game.

Marshall Norris is in the Navy. He took his boot training at Bainbridge and is now headed for the Pacific coast.

James Stafford is at Fort Benning and to hear him tell it, he is having as many trying experiences as "Private Hargrove". Maybe he'll write a book before this thing is over; his letters are most interesting, especially since Jimmy doesn't mind telling jokes on him-

Money Is Received For Another Cottage

Bequest Previously Announced Is Paid By Executors.- Money In Hand for Three

It was announced in The Messenger some months ago that the late Mrs. Carrie Banks Holt Mebane, of Washington, D. C. had bequeathed the sum of $10,000.00 to Barium Springs for the purpose of "constructing a building at the said Orphanage, to be used by the smaller or younger children of said institution and to be known as the James Kerr Mebane Cottage." The individual honored by this sum was Mrs. Mebane's husband.

During September this legacy was paid in the Home here by the executers of the estate, though the amount received was $9,550.00, instead of $10,000.00, due to inheritance taxes in the District of Columbia where Mrs. Mebane maintained her residence. The District allows but a $1,000.00 exemption, and thus $9,000.00 of the bequest was subject to a 5% inheritance tax, which was $450.00.

A day or two after the arrival of the check it was placed in government war bonds until such a time as building can be done in the slight growth in negro work was reported, especially in Charlotte, and aid was given students in Mary Potter School for Negroes (U.S.A.) in Oxford, where 450 students are. Deaf mutes are provided with preaching in over five communities. All the presbyteries reported progress in home mission work with over $89,000 spent.

Dr. P. H. Gwyn reported Junior College for men at Maxton has 196 students, and property worth $208,000, over $20,000 being added in 1942. The endowment now is $17,000 and if the church will raise $95,000, W. H. Belk will give $5,000 to make it $100,000. The expenses of the school were $63,000 the Synod giving $3,000. Graduates enter A grade colleges unhandicapped. The school has trained 800 soldiers. Dr. Gwyn who was speaking for Dr. L. C. Lamotte, the president, said junior colleges would be in great demand after the war.

Dr. Gwyn spoke of the progress of Bible teaching in public schools with 98 communities engaged in it in the state.

Religious Education has had a large program of conferences, camps, training schools, and extension work. W. E. Price has offered $100 a month to support an extension worker and Miss Margaret Sells, returned missionary from China, will serve. The budget of this committee is $12,600.

The Synod adopted the new division of work of Christian Education, as suggested by the Educational Association: Into Educational Institutions, Student work, and Ministerial Support and Candidates. Another suggestion by the Educational Association meeting in Montreat in July that all colleges be asked to make their directors controlled by synods instead of presbyteries carried by two votes. Synod also established the office of director of educational institutions, but left the committee the duty of selecting the director. All colleges reported full attendance. Flora Macdonald will celebrate 50 years of service in 1946.

Synod overtured the assembly to lay greater stress on Negro ministerial education.

Orphans Home reported 289 children in the Home. Mr. J. B. Johnston, superintendent, said 180 boys and girls, alumni of Barium Springs, are in the armed service, and he gets 100 leters a month from them - Synod's support of this school was its greatest in history. Plans for a new church building with Sunday School facilities are on foot. Synod will meet at Barium next year.

Work among soldiers shows nine women and five ministers at work in communities near the military posts. Synod spent $23,947 in this work, and set $30,000 as the quota asked of churches. Mother's Day is the day for collections for soldier work. The churches raised $15,388 last May.

North Carolina Synod has merged its work with the assembly and Dr. H. B. Lacy, assembly's chairman, spoke to the synod. There are ten military posts in the state.

Rev. M. O Sommers, secretary of assembly's committee on Evangelism reported that 2,728 persons were converted last year, about one for every 33 members. He reported that the assembly has apportioned $10,000 for this cause to support a field worker.

The synod supports workers in all the state colleges and Duke University at a cost of $45,000. There are 3,000 Presbyterians in these schools.

Synod accepted its quota of $63,717 for the Home Mission Emergency Campaign. It heard Rev. S. B. Lapsley, director of Second Year Emergency Campaign, who told of the great task of evangelizing new communities created in defense industries. Over 300,000 have moved into North Carolina. He said last year's emergency campaign had put 57 new workers in the south and built 65 new houses of worship.

Synod heard Dr. E. T. Thompson of Union Seminary in two devotionals. He spoke first of "The Good News About God" as brought by Christ. He cited five Jewish sects who sought the kingdom by force, by escape from trouble (the Essenes), by compromise with Rome, and religious devotion. Christ preached the kingdom as an organic growth with a universal hope and a present reality based on repentance which changed the way of living.

Dr. Thompson's second address was on the Sermon on the Mount and its teaching about anger and revenge. He said anger is dangerous personally and nationally and revenge cannot make an enduring peace. He would rescind the Oriental exclusion act, and avoid all retaliations. Christ demands we love our enemies. Synod instructed the stated clerk to publish the two addresses.

Dr. J. R. Cunningham conducted a forum on "The Church and the Negro". He said the Negroes form ten per cent of the population of the United States and deserve citizens' rights. He said 175,000 Negroes own their homes with ten million acres of land, while $7,000,000 is spent for their education. He recommended using interracial units in handling problems.

Rev. E. J. Arnold, secretary of N. C. Council of Churches and also of the Interracial Committee pointed out the unrest of Negroes and urged recognition of their rights. Rev. Carl Pritchett said Negroes are beginning to doubt the sincerity of white people's religious professions.

Dr. B. R. Lacy said Union and Louisville Seminaries are ready to unite on the basis of consolidation of all properties in Richmond, with the Northern Presbyterian Synod of Kentucky having one-third of trustees. The law of Virginia will not allow the combination and a change will be asked of the state legislature next January. Then the proposal will be brought to the controlling synods. The purpose is to make a strong seminary adequate for graduate and undergraduate work and for extension courses.

Synod heard Mrs. E. C. Heins, president of Woman's Synodical Auxiliary, tell of their work. They have 31,865 members and raised $242,048 for all causes, conducted a Negro Women's conference with 160 attending, had given to White Cross Work in Stillman hospital and in Africa, and support Bible instruction in public schools. The auxiliary meets in High Point October 19-20.

Dr. H. W. Myers, missionary in Japan 45 years, told of his prison experience in Tokyo after Pearl Harbor for six months and how he supported himself by prayer, Bible recitation and memorizing 20 chapters in the Bible. He spoke hopefully of Christianity in Japan and expects missionaries to return and open new fields after militarism is crushed.

Rev. J. A. Jones, D. D., of Charlotte, delivered the closing sermon on "The Mission of the Christian", which he said was to go as Christ did to the lost, to make Christ known as Father of all men, and to show man the way out of sin by the same sacrificial life as Christ's.

Statistics

Synod adopted a budget of $663,627, of which assembly's causes were apportioned $321,859 and local causes $341,768. Synod appropriated $300 to North Carolina Council of Churches and $200 for Allied Churches for Abolition of Liquor Traffic. Synod expressed its appreciation of the work of Rev. E. J. Arnold, executive secretary of N. C. Council.

The statistics of the synod are ministers, 392, churches, 547, members, 93,371 added on confession, 2,728, on certificate, 3,394, Sunday School enrollment, 71,677. Contributions were pastor's salaries, $516,114, building, $350,657, current expenses $651,721, total benevolence, $792,813.

Officers reelected were Rev. C. M. Gibbs, stated clerk, Rev. J. W. Stork permanent clerk, and. J. G. Garth publicity clerk for three years. Rev. E. E. Gillespie, superintendent of home missions, Rev. J. O. Mann, director of religious education and Miss Mary Louise Woodson, director of young peoples work, all for one year.

Alumni News

MARRIAGES.

Johnson-Weeks.

Another marriage has occurred between alumni of Barium Springs, for on September 18th Miss Mary Johnson, of Tarboro, was married at Bennetsville, S. C. to Jesse Weeks, of Wilmington and the U. S. Navy. Mr. and Mrs. Weeks came to Barium Springs on Friday following their marriage on Saturday, and thus favored their old Home here with a visit while on their honeymoon.

Mrs. Weeks finished at Barium Springs in the class of 1942 and since then has been in nurses' training at the Rocky Mount Sanatarium. Jesse left here in 1939 and shortly thereafter enlisted in the Navy, even before hostilities broke out. He returned to his duties with Uncle Sam on September 26th, and his wife will continue her preparation to be a nurse. She will be living at 336 S. Church Street, Rocky Mount.

BIRTHS.

Lieut. and Mrs. David Spencer announce the birth of a daughter, Jeanne, at the Davis Hospital, Statesville, on September 1st. Mrs. Spencer is in Statesville and Lieut. Spencer is stationed in Utah.

NEW RECRUITS.

Since the last Messenger, three more alumni have either entered the services or we have become acquainted with their being with Uncle Sam. These are Walter Fraley, Jessie Harris (we learned about this by reading that he was wounded in the Southwest Pacific area) and Leila Johnston, daughter of Barium's superintendent, who is now enrolled in the Waves and is undergoing training at Smith College.

PROMOTIONS.

Recent promotions of Barium alumni include Tom Bobbitt to First Lieutenant; Marshall Wilson to Staff Sergeant; Billy Lindsey and Arthur Roach to Sergeants; Walter Motte and Ben Lewis to seamen second class; Corris Smith to Corporal and Daniele Salvaggio, Archie Moore, Joe Ben Gibbs, William Wadsworth and Arnim East to privates first class.

VISITORS.

Among visitors to the Barium campus recently were Woot Davis, Charles Gallyon, Major Bruce and Mrs. Frances Lowrance Parcell, Ruth Cole, Gwyn Fletcher, Richard Shoaf, J. P. Stinson and Raymond Good.

PERSONALS.

Helen Price was graduated from Appalachian Teachers College at Boone this summer and her first teaching assignment is at Ronda, N. C.

Letha Copeland is now teaching in Morganton, after being with the Lincolnton schools for several years.

A certain lady was married four times. Her first husband was a millionaire, the next a movie producer, then a doctor, and last an undertaker. Her reason for marrying in such order was: one for the money, two for the show, three to get ready, and four to go.

Cottage News

HOWARD COTTAGE

Dear Friends,

Here we, the beanstringers, are back with you again, bringing you the cottage news.

We have had many good times in swimming and camping for our physical education. Miss McNeill takes us in swimming.

The following girls have had visits from their people: Clara Mangum's mother and brother, Essie Jean Lee's mother, Ellen Holt's father and some others, and Louise Campbell's grandmother and sister.

We have started having apples. They sure do taste good.

We have a new girl. She is Mary Lee Jordon.

School has started and we like it.

We have a new substitute matron. She is Miss Burns. We like her. She is taking Miss Mary Neel's place.

We will close for this time.

—The Howard Cottage

THE INFIRMARY

Dear Friends,

Afted three months' delay we have a little news for you.

We had a nice summer (while it lasted). We have started to school now and are liking it fine. We have a few new teachers and we are glad to have them with us.

Mrs. Jackins has come to live at the Infirmary and we enjoy having her.

"Aunt" Blanche Feimster, one of our girls, has left us and Mary Belle Reid has taken her place. We miss you "Aunt" Blanche but we are glad to have Mary Belle.

The swimming pool is still open and you can still see a few late dueks swimming around.

We have a few patients with us and the popular two are the babies of the campus, Donald Privett and Charles Bowles.

Mr. Johnston has a new secretary, Miss Ruth Hadley, and we like her very much. Glad to have you, Ruth.

We are glad to have Mr. Hethcox with us as it doesn't seem like home without him.

Synod Will Meet At This

donald recently.

A new all-time attendance record was set by Synod when it assembled here two years ago. The official registration was 356 ministers and elders, and this did not include special visiting speakers who were invited for those sessions. All told, in the neighborhood of 400 people visited the Home sometime during the 1941 meeting.

It so happened, too, that the occasion of the last meeting at Barium was the semi-centennial celebration for the Home, and the outstanding attendance record helped in the celebration of that important milestone here. Whether 356 can attend in 1944 largely depends upon conditions existing at that time. Barium will not be celebrating any particular event, but officials would like for a new attendance record to be set next fall.

As in 1941, the Home will be responsible for all of Synod. A few years before, Barium Springs and the First Church in Statesville jointly entertained the body, but the 1941 experience shows that it can be handled locally. Many friends in this section help, though, by inviting their special friends to be their guests.

It takes long-time planning when so many extra people are here for several days, and already the cogs are being set in motion so that a well-functioning machine will be ready to take care of the ministers and elders in 1944. If some other invitation does come to Synod, there would be no lost motion if plans had to be altered here.

"There's no need for you to shout, said the dentist. "I haven't touched your tooth yet."

"No," said the patient, "but you are standing on my corn."

Farmer: "Man! You must be brave to come down in a parachute in a hundred-mile gale like this."

Stranger: "I didn't come down in a parachute. I went up with a tent."

Father: "It must be time to get up."

Mother: "Why, dear?"

Father: "The baby has just fallen asleep."

Thanksgiving Plans

time.

No public mention had been made of the type of publicity for 1943 for the main reason that officials did not want the alumni of the Home to know of the plans. "Pride and Appreciation of Alumni" is simply a series of quotations taken from letters of boys and girls to Barium Springs without their knowledge. These former residents wrote from hearts of appreciation voluntarily and not a word used in all of the quotations was inspired. Had it been publicly known that this was being done, some of the alumni might have written statements. Authorities were anxious that the alumni be unaware of the plans.

This should be a booklet to fill the hearts of Presbyterians with pride that they have been helping in the support of a place which the boys and girls love so much and for which they frequently get homesick. If the children who are nurtured and cared for here manifest a proudness of their home, it is felt that the kind of place is being operated of which the supporters can likewise be proud.

In addition to these local publicity preparations, Synod's permanent committee on Orphanage work will soon start functioning in lining up local committees in every church in the Synod. This is headed by J. Archie Cannon, of Concord, who has been general chairman ever since the organization of a special committee which later became a permanent one at Synod's direction. Each Presbytery has a chairman. As soon as local committees are obtained, their names are furnished to Mr. Cannon. He gets in touch with them and the literature from Barium is sent direct to the committee members.

These local committees are delegated with the task of seeing that every member of their church has a chance to contribute, whether they attend the Thanksgiving services or not, and whether they are within the state during the Thanksgiving period. To this central committee of Synod goes much of the credit for the success that has attended the Thanksgiving efforts in recent years.

The Thanksgiving response of $56,013.38 in 1942 was the greatest in the history of the Home, and officials at Barium and members of all committees - Synod, Presbytery and local - will work toward the establishment of a new all-time peak in the approaching Thanksgiving season of 1943.

Money Is Received

future.

This is the third sum for a proposed six-cottage children's village that will some day be constructed at Barium Springs, for a $7,000.00 sum was anonymously contributed to the Home several years ago and Mr. Ralph S. Robinson, of Gastonia, gave $10,000.00 for another one of the cottages in memory of his uncle and in honor of his aunt. Thus, $26,550.00 is in hand for these three buildings, and most of that money has been temporarily placed in government securities.

It is believed at Barium Springs that when the time arrives for building this little village to house boys and girls under ten years of age that all of the necessary money for the entire project will be in hand. It is planned to have a separate dining room for these tiny children, and the six buildings to comprise the village will vary in cost from $7,000.00 to $10,000.00. Some of the cottages will be smaller than others and some larger, depending upon the use planned for them.

Mrs. Mebane made her provision for this building in her will which was written in 1940, for she had read of the proposed project and had personally told officials that if she didn't build this cottage during her lifetime that a sufficient sum would be made available in her estate. Mrs. Mebane died in January, 1942, and when her last will and testament was probated she had carried out her intentions.

Junior: "Say, mother, how much am I worth?"

Mother: "Why, you are worth a million dollars to me, dear."

Junior: "Well, then, could you advance me a quarter?"

Another Increase by Synod in August

Gain In Five Months Is $3,069.18.— May Be More After September 30th

The Synod of North Carolina showed a $43.02 increase in its regular giving to the Presbyterian Orphans' Home during the month of August, to give a five-month advance of $3,069.18. The gain in August was not as great as those which have been observed in previous months, but it was an increase nevertheless and was thus responsible for further gratification at Barium Springs.

Every main source of receipts has participated in the $3,069.18 increase. The Church budgets have sent $1,602.24 more; from the Sunday Schools has arrived an additional $1,387.33, and the Auxiliaries have given $79.61 more - all increases over the sums in hand on August 31, 1942.

While it is largely a matter of conjecture, yet there might be another increase during the month of September. This will depend upon the donations that arrive during the last week. Gifts in the early part of the month were splendid ones, and on a comparative basis of days, Synod was ahead of last September.

The arrangements of the Presbyteries on the basis of what had been contributed in relationship to membership is as follows:

Presbytery	*	**	***
W.-Salem	$265.50	5.3c	27.6c
Kings Mountain	303.26	4.6c	23.2c
Mecklenburg	967.05	5 c	22.2c

Granville	249.64	3.6c	13.3c
SYNOD	$3,643.99	3.9c	18.7c

*August Receipts; Amount Received Per Member; Total Per Member for Year.

Of the grand total, the Sunday Schools had forwarded 47.9% or $8,344.32; from the Church budgets had been welcomed $6,437.91, or 36.9% of the aggregate, and the remaining percentage of receipts, 15.2%, came from the Auxiliaries which had forwarded $2,641.10.

Detail on the sources of income follows:

Presbytery	Ch.	S. S.	Aux.
Albemarle	$ 112.75	$ 499.03	$332.88

Pleas Norman is in the Navy. For a while he was at Bainbridge and now in Richmond. They have discovered Pleas' splendid voice. He sang a lot while at Bainbridge and is on the schedule to sing at the dedication of the Chapel which will soon be opened in Richmond.

Richard Shoaf, also a Bainbridge Navy man, is still there. All three of these Navy boys have gotten back to Barium for a visit. They look good, they are enthusiastic about their branch of the service, and we are expecting big things from them.

Ernest Stricklin, the biggest member of the class though not the oldeest· is waiting for his birthdays to catch up with him to tell him when to go into the service. He is at present working in the S & W Cafeteria in Charlotte, and from his looks, he is a mighty good advertisement for that eating house. He has been to visit us several times and was present for that ball game Friday.

Roscoe Twombly, the youngest member of the class who was the valedictorian, you remember, is working in Albemarle, waiting for his 18th birthday to arrive.

Willie Stinson is working with his father on the farm at Barium He has an occupational deferment.

Lillie Bryant, another member of the class of '43, is working here at Barium. She is assistant matron at the Baby Cottage and is doing a good job· Anytime you '43 graduates return, you will have Willie Stinson and Lillie Bryant to welcome you.

Bertha Broome almost established a record. She is married. She is Mrs. John B. Kirkpatrick. Her husband is in the service and Bertha is working in Charlotte.

Evelyn Coppedge and May Lynn Jones are both working in Washington, D· C. They made applications for work with the F. B. I. and they are making good.

Marie Morgan is working for the Pilot Life Insurance Company in Greensboro.

Janie Smith is working in Salisbury, living with her sister, Mrs. Marie Smith Mills·

Juanita McMasters is the only one that we haven't heard directly from, but she is in Greensboro. We just don't know exactly what she is doing.

That calls the roll.

In addition to those already mentioned, we have had visits from Janie Smith, Marie Morgan, Lillian Sanders and Mrs. Bertha Broom Kirkpatrick, and frequent letters from Evelyn Coppedge and May Lynn Jones.

Robert Ashley White Class Changes Plans

Will Give Window in New Church Instead of Present Little Joe's Building

It was announced in the August issue of The Barium Messenger that the Robert Ashley White Bible Class of the Mooresville First Church was giving $100.00 for a window in the present Little Joe's Church in memory of their former pastor and for whom the Class is named.

However, since that time the Class had decided that they would add to the original $100.00 that they planned to give and have r quested that this donation be used for a window in the proposed new church when it is built. Officials informed the group that they would gladly make this change, but were unable to give them an idea of the cost of windows in the new church, since no architect's plans have been drawn for it.

Since this change has been made, it leaves two $100.00 windows and two to cost $375.00 each to be given for the present Little Joe's Church building. Money is in hand for two that will entail an outlay of $100.00 each.

"I am at your service, ma'am," the burglar said when the lady of the house caught him stealing her silver.

Old Gentleman: "You're an honest lad, but it was a ten doller bill, not ten ones."

Small Boy: "I know, mister, it was a ten doller bill I picked up. But the last time I found one, the man who owned it didn't have any change."

"Now that we are all sacrificing for the war, do you think women will go back to making their own bread?"

"Not so long as her man can still raise the dough in the hour of knead."

$100.00 S. S. Club

Through August 31st, 20 Sunday Schools in North Carolina Synod had sent as much as $100.00 in regular donations to Barium Springs. Since there were 16 at the close of July, this means that Mooresville First, Trinity Avenue, Huntersville and Monroe have joined the others in attaining this goal at the close of the fifth month of 1943-1944.

In the August Messenger it was stated that 16 Sunday Schools were in the Club, but in the listing, the name of Rocky Mount First was omitted through error. That Sunday School was already in the Club in one-third of the year.

During the month of September, a good many other Sunday Schools entered this grouping, and if space permits next month, a revised list will be prepared at the halfway point of the current year.

The numerical arrangement of the 20 present members of the $100.00 Club follows:

Sunday School	Amount
Myers Park	$377.00
Albemarle First	250.00
Winston-Salem First	225.21
Kannapolis First	203.50
Belmont	195.02
Greensboro First	191.63
Salisbury First	180.30
Concord First	175.95
Rocky Mount First	171.16
Burlington First	169.97
Durham First	164.02
Tenth Avenue	145.76
Buffalo (G)	135.16
Rockingham	129.31
Shelby	124.34

Lieut. Fred Lowrance Missing

the regular ranks of the Army, was promoted to sergeant and was selected for the Officers' Candidate school at Fort Benning. After being commissioned he was mustered to the southwest Pacific area in October, 1941, in which territory he has been actively engaged for some time.

Another son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowrance, First Lieut. Wilson W. Lowrance, is connected with a hospital at El Paso, Texas, and a son-in-law, Major Bruce Parcell, is in charge of an airfield at Clearwater, Fla.

The missing lieutenant is one of 175 alumni of the Barium Springs High School in the services. One, Lieut. Paul Pittman, recently died in a Texas hospital; three have been reported missing in action, and two are prisoners of the Japs.

She: "I have a confession to make, dear. I can't cook."

He: "Don't let that worry you, honey. I can't make a living, so there won't be anything to cook."

Mother: "Your uncle will be here for dinner, Sonny, and you must wash your face."

Sonny: "Yes, Ma, but supposin' he doesn't come—then what?"

Land Donated For Part of Church Site

More Than Acre and a Half Which Will Be "Front Yard" of Church Is Given

Mr. Dan S· Lippard, Mrs. Etta Lippard Porter, and the latter's daughter, Mrs. Marguerite Porter Yount, are giving to Barium Springs more than an acre and a half of land in memory of the late Mr. W. H. and Mrs. Margaret Goodman Lippard. Those whose lives are being memorialized are the mother and father of Mr· Lippard and Mrs. Porter and the grandmother and grandfather of Mrs. Yount.

This land is located just beyond the grammar school building, where it is planned to place the new church when it is constructed, and it is immediately in front of the spot where it is expected that the church will be built. Thus, this valuable donation will really constitute the "front yard" or entrance to the building.

If these friends and neighbors of Barium Springs had not been good enough to give this land in memory of these loved ones, it would have been necessary to build the church further back on land owned at the present time by the Home, but the giving of this plot will now make it possible to build the church on a site that will conform to the layout of the buildings here. It was a generous gift and officials at Barium are exuberant that these friends have come forward and offered this particular property to the Home.

Last February, Mr· Lippard and Mrs. Porter, who are the survivors in a family of seven children, were in the office at Barium to give a a sum in memory of their five brothers and sisters. At the time they inquired as to the place planned for the church and it was revealed that the spot was immediately behind the land which they owned. They revealed that they had been thinking of giving this to the Home. In September they visited the office again, made a definite commitment and inquired as to the best way to deed the property. This information was given and the deed is now in the process of being prepared.

Not only will this land be of especial value to the church, but it helps straighten out the lines of property owned here. When the state highway constructed the fence around the campus, they had to veer to the right when they came to the grammar school building, since the Home did not own the plot that would have enabled them to finish the fence in a straight line·

The land being deeded to Barium Springs fronts approximately 425 feet on U. S. highway No. 21, runs around 215 feet on the old Statesville highway that passes Little Joe's cemetery, is 67 feet on the opposite end and is about 440 feet on the back side.

Bonds for Church Are Now $20,000

Special Sums and Individual Bonds Sent in September Raises Bond Total for Church

During the latter part of September the government war bonds in the possession of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home for a proposed new church here climbed to a sum slightly in excess of $20,000·00, which was an increase of $700.00 in the amount of bonds as announced in the August issue of the paper. All memorial donations received had been placed in such securities, and then there were some special contributions for the church.

Mrs. Bonnie Austin Petteway, of Charlotte, sent a $25.00 Series F war bond in memory of her father and mother, the late Dr. James Aaron Austin and Mrs. Sarah Wilma Duncan Austin· Dr. Austin died on December 14, 1924 and Mrs. Austin was claimed on June 21, 1941.

An unknown friend forwarded a $25.00 Series F war bond to Barium Springs through the Charlotte branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond. The name of the donor was not revealed when the bond was sent, though this information may possibly be known later.

A friend in the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Charlotte sent a $75.00 check to be used for a war bond. It was explained that this was a little more than the sum necessary for the Series F bonds that the Home is purchasing, for these are bonds to mature in 12 years and are bought for $74·00.

In the case of the two bonds sent, the donors had read in The Barium Messenger that these should be made out to "The Regents of the Orphans' Home, a corporation, Barium Springs, N. C." for the two bonds were properly prepared. Corporations cannot buy the "E" bonds, but "F" and "G" securities are available. The "F" series is preferred, since all interest accruing on the bonds becomes a part of the principal by an action of the Board of Regents at its meeting here last May.

As other bonds or money is sent to Barium Springs they will be announced in The Messenger, and as readers look over the list of donations in memory of individuals and loved ones they can know that all of those funds, too, are going to be used in the needed church building.

Correction

In the August issue of The Barium Messenger it was stated that Mrs. R. A. Morrison was the new matron at Rumple Hall. This was an error. It should have read "Mrs. R· A. Thompson".

Miss Margaret Morrison is one of the five new teachers in the school system, and in writing articles consecutively for last month's paper on both the new faculty and staff members, this error in Mrs. Thompson's name inadvertently crept in. The correction is gladly made.

So, if anyone wants to communicate with the matron at Rumple Hall, the mail can be addressed to Mrs. R. A. Thompson.

"Hey! Sit down in front."

"Quit yer kidding, I don't bend that way."

When we used to hear "One and, two and, three and," it meant that junior was practicing his piano lesson· Now it means that mamma is trying to plan a meal under the point rationing system.

"When I went to work for you, didn't you say something about my getting a raise?"

"I did say that you would if you did your work well."

"I knew there was a catch to it somewhere."

Refinement has been described as the ability to yawn without opening the mouth.

"How did your Victory Garden turn out this year?"

"It was a great saving in one way. There wasn't as much lawn to mow."

Irving: "We'd have won that football game if our captain had not lost his head."

Frances: "Mercy! was it that bad? I heard it was only an ear·"

HOME MISSION EMERGENCY FUND CAMPAIGN

The Assembly's quota is $335,000. Of this amount the sum of $250,000 is for the Emergency Fund and the sum of $85,000 for the Self-Denial Offering. The Synod of North Carolina has a quota of $63,717.

Quotas of the Presbyteries

Albemarle	$ 3,113.00
Concord	8,929.00
Fayetteville	6,939.00
Granville	4,358.00
Kings Mountain	5,025.00
Mecklenburg	16,056.00
Orange	9,978.00
Wilmington	4,770.00
Winston-Salem	4,613.00

Not a New Campaign

This is no NEW campaign upon which we are entering. It is but the SECOND step toward the realization of the FIVE-year Emergency Appeal already endorsed by the Assembly, the Synods and the Presbyteries. The FIRST effort was a great success and the SECOND promises to be equally as good if not better.

Same Machinery Employed

The same machinery used in the FIRST step will be employed in the SECOND. No NEW committees are to be "set up" but the existing efficient agencies of the Synod and Presbyteries are to function in the promotion of this SECOND phase of the Home Mission Emergency Fund. It is true there may be some replacements of new parts here and there and some of the true and tried old parts may need a little brushing up and oiling a bit but as a whole you have your "set-up" practically complete to start with, your cause endorsed and you are "ready to go."

The Suggested "Set-up"

1. IN SYNOD: The chairman of Synod's Home Mission Committee, the superintendent, the chairman of Synod's Stewardship Committee, the president of the Synodical, the secretary of Assembly's Home Missions and secretary of Synod's and Presbytery's Home Missions of the Synodical, together with any others these may select from committees or at large.

2. IN PRESBYTERY: The chairman of Presbytery's Committee of Home Missions, the chairman of Presbytery's Stewardship Committee, the president of the Presbyterial, the secretary of Assembly's Home Missions and the secretary of Synod's and Presbytery's Home Missions in the Presbytery, together with any others these may select. In Presbyteries where there are superintendents or secretaries, they are to be members of this promotion committee. In SEVEN of the Presbyteries we are fortunate in having such an officer to help promote this campaign.

3. IN LOCAL CHURCH: The Session should appoint THREE picked men, the president of the Local Auxiliary, the secretary of Assembly's Home Missions and the secretary of Synod's and Presbytery's Home Missions as a committee to promote the campaign in the local congregation.

—The Presbyterian News.

A REAL TROUBLE

If one should ask that the chief causes of trouble about the Orphanage be named, we would certainly list among those difficulties the spirit that is widespread and that expresses itself in the phrase, "Oh, the Orphanage will take care of itself." It is unfortunate that so many of our people should, with utter complacency, make such a statement. There are many of our people who feel that there is no danger in connection with the Orphanage and its work. It is very nice to have a friendly constituency, but it is unfortunate that so many should feel that that there is no necessity to agonize for the Orphanage or to put out special effort for it. Here comes along a building campaign in which there is strong call for local money for local expenses. Immediately the Orphanage cause is cut off or plans for it are changed by a reduction in gifts. A change in superintendents occurs and the new Sunday School head happens not to inherit from his predecessor a love for the Orphanage and an interest in it. Therefore, the Sunday School goes off our list of contributors. It is a pity for people to have too much confidence in a cause or to feel too secure as to its success. The Orphanage has suffered greatly in that many a pastor is indifferent to its appeal, as he feels that other difficult and less popular causes must receive his support and gentle urging and that, therefore, it is unnecessary for him to be particularly concerned for the Orphanage and its work. This attitude in our state has not been disastrous, but it has certainly been most unfortunate and far-reaching in its effect. The Orphanage will not take care of itself, nor will any cause be able to do so. We must have the cooperation and the earnest support of those who believe in the merits of a cause. —The Connie Maxwell.

THINGS TO FORGET

The mean things others have said about you.

The injury any person has done you.

The mistakes you have made in the past, except as they may warn you in the future.

The kindness you have tried to do others.

The days when you were better off than you are now.

The promises other people have made to you.

The ill-natured gossip you have heard concerning others.

The secrets entrusted to your confidence.

The worry that hinders your happiness.

The drawbacks that seem to stand in the way of your success.

"Those are trees dear," answered the mother.

"Where are they going?"

Barium Captain

Esau Davis, who captains the 1943 football team of Barium Springs. In its first two games, Barium tied Harding high in Charlotte, 0 to 0, and lost to Albemarle, 0 to 6. This was the first meeting between Barium and Harding high and it was the first time in history that Albemarle has won over the Orphanage chaps.
